IUCN ... over 1,300 Members, 11500 scientific experts in 6 thematic Commissions and 1,000 staff.

IUCN Members within a country or region may choose to organize themselves into National and Regional Committees to facilitate cooperation among Members, and with other parts of the Union, and to support the participation of Members in the Programme and governance of IUCN.

The IUCN Council is the principal governing body of IUCN, International Union for Conservation of Nature, in between sessions of the World Conservation Congress - the general assembly of the Union's members.

Accountable to the IUCN Council, the Secretariat is led by a Director General. The Secretariat has a decentralized structure with regional, outpost, country and project offices around the world.
